Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are filling graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardui establishes a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life. $1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Della M. Strayer, Tully, Kan. "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything, in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Theodor's Black-Draught, when needed, and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."

Miss Mattie Evans, of your town, and Miss Hallie Thomas, the charming daughter of Grant Thomas, of Beattyville, in company with Forest Waldeck, and Volney Ingram, both of Hazel Green, spent Saturday at this place. In the afternoon we took a sarvis hunt, which was highly enjoyed by all.

Clay Lacy and wife and two children while crossing the river at the Brooks' ford Saturday, the horse took fright and upset the buggy, throwing them out in the middle of the river. It is amusing to hear Mrs. Lacy tell how she caught the little ones by the heels and dragging them to the shore, thinking at the same time they were drowned. She herself was hurt slightly, but the rest was only wet and scared. Well, Clay didn't say.

Mr. Cisco will be his guest for a month, and that he will enjoy himself with Will Cecil as mine host there is no doubt, for Will is a wholesome boy and a clever man about his house. He "shore" is. A MISTAKE CORRECTED.

Chairman Carter, of the Senatorial Committee, Denies the Charges of Mr. Hampton.

Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD:

I desire to make a statement to the democrats of the 34th senatorial district of Kentucky. I see a card in the papers, signed by James J. Hampton, in which he offers some reflections upon my rulings as chairman of the district in the late convention. He says I forcibly took the vote of Magoffin county from him and gave it to Mr. Stamper. No statement that could be made with reference to my actions in that convention, however false and insinuating, would do me greater injustice. There was a contest in Magoffin—two sets of delegates came to the convention—one headed by Hon. D. D. Sublett, was for Mr. Stamper, and the other headed by Hon. Dudley Gardner, was for Mr. Hampton. I called the convention to order, and after appointing two secretaries, one of whom was Henry Noble, of Jackson, a delegate for Mr. Hampton, and one of his leaders, proceeded with the election of a temporary chairman of the convention. Hon. G. W. Goad, of Morgan, and Hon. Dudley Gardner, of Magoffin, were before the convention to be voted for as chairman. I ordered the roll of the counties called, and the vote proceeded. Morgan county cast 9 votes for Goad without objection. Wolfe county gave her five votes to Goad; Breathitt county's 8 votes went to Gardner. Gardner got the one vote of Owsley. When Magoffin was reached her 5 votes were tried to be cast for each of the candidates for chairman. Each side presented credentials. I knew from the manner and temper of the contesting delegations that the contest was a hot one. I therefore declined to let that county vote in the temporary organization, and referred their credentials to the committee on credentials. When I made the announcement some one from Morgan tried to cast the vote of that county for Gardner. I knew he was no delegate. I knew there was no contest in my county, as I was chairman and presided over the county convention—only one held in my county—and in the convention there was no proposition made or anything whatever said about a contest. I took "Judicial notice" of this fact and refused to hear the straw-counting raised. The vote stood 14 for Goad and 9 for Gardner. I so announced the vote and declared Goad duly elected temporary chairman of the convention. One of the secretaries, Mr. Noble, without the shadow of authority announced that Goad had received 14 votes and Gardner 14 votes, making a tie. Their secretary did not claim that Gardner was elected, and had no right to do so. It was at this time that the Hampton men from Breathitt and Magoffin withdrew from the convention, and in one end of the convention hall held a side show, in which they claim to have voted all the counties in the district for Hampton, except Wolfe county; as shown by his card. On the second day of the convention, after the committee on credentials, composed of stalwart, honest, judicious and brainy democrats, reported seating Stamper's delegation in Magoffin, which report was adopted by the convention, and after Mr. Lykins, of Morgan, had his name withdrawn from the convention as a candidate, Hon. A. Howard Stamper received the 9 votes of Morgan, 5 votes of Wolfe and 5 votes of Magoffin, being all the votes in the district except 9, and amid almost deafening applause, which attest the high esteem in which our nominee is held by the "boys in the trenches" and that he is the choice of the democrats of the district, permanent chairman Goad, declared him the nominee of the democratic party for state senator. I want to say further that it is a fact, which every delegate at the convention knows to be true, that for 24 hours after the Hampton men withdrew from the convention, they remained in Hazel Green and worked and electioneered industriously, hoping the drop would in the end fall on Mr. Hampton and that he would be the nominee of the regular convention. I wonder if Mr. Hampton will deny that he told parties in Hazel Green, after the side show was over, that he would not accept the nomination under such circumstances. The parties can be found; their names are known and their veracity can not be called in question. These statements I have made are true, and I make them to place myself in the proper light before the people of the district and the country at large. Respectfully,
JOHN S. CARTER, Chairman
34th Sen. Dist. of Kentucky.

Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

The attention of our readers is respectfully addressed to the ad. on last page of our paper "Try Your Luck." Therein is a chance to get the best local paper published in Eastern Kentucky and the neat sum of $5,000. The problem is solvable, and if you can guess the figures you are sure to get the money. The Press Association is a responsible organization, and, as will be seen by reading the ad., they have the money now in bank to pay the lucky estimator. By attending to this matter at once you have the chance of getting 1,000 extra, and surely $5,000 is some incentive in these hard times. Don't wait until this opportunity passes you by never to return, but grasp it now and do some figuring. Surely the ten years vote will enable you to form a pretty accurate guess, and who knows but you may hit the exact figures. You lose nothing at any rate, for the paper is worth the money.

HOWARD STAMPER, democratic nominee for state senator in this district, was a guest of the Day House Tuesday night, and talked with editor of this paper about his candidacy. He said he and his friends had submitted to Dave Redwine a proposition to have the state central committee act in the matter and settle it as to whether he or Judge Hampton is heir to the nomination. This, we have all the time maintained, was the proper course, and the sooner it is done the better for the party. Mr. Stamper is quite sanguine as to the result and talks very fairly in regard to the matter, and we hope it will soon be settled that democratic success may be assured. As the case now stands Judge Hampton seems to be responsible, and the sooner he realizes the great democratic doctrine that "The party is greater than the man," the sooner will he escape the stigma of "kicking against the pricks." Let us have peace in the party and victory will be emblazoned upon our banner this fall and the common enemy—republicanism—vanquished! Selah!

People who are sympathizing with the first Mrs. Herron seem to forget that she got rid of Herron. There are compensations in everything.

ARE YOU good at guessing? If so, send us $1 for a year's subscription to THE HERALD and guess the total vote of Ohio, Massachusetts and Iowa at the November election. The subscriber who can guess the nearest will get $5,000, and if he makes his guess before July 10, he will get $1,000 extra. We should like to see some of our subscribers get this money, and as all who make a guess have 1,000 chances of getting their money back it looks like there is but little risk to incur. "Try Your Luck."

SOME scientist is claiming that monkeys can be taught to pick cotton. Nay! Nay! Pauline! This has been tried before. But the planter who put one negro to watch ten monkeys, soon found that he needed ten negroes to watch one of the pesky little beasts.

The Odd Fellows and Masons, of Campton, are arranging for a fete on the 24th inst. at Torrent, where members of both organizations from the surrounding country will be entertained in royal style. A grand time is anticipated, and the event promises to be one that will long be remembered by all who have the pleasure to participate.

Our friend Fred J. Heintz, the manufacturing jeweler of Lexington, sent Mr. and Mrs. Elza James as a bridal present a handsome pin case in shape of a cartridge, upon which is the American flag. The cartridge is about three inches long by one in diameter, and is an exact imitation of a cartridge. Enclosed was a fine silver thimble which proved an exact fit.

The sum of $1.00 will bring some lucky individual THE HERALD for 12 months and $5,000 in cash. A little figuring is all that is necessary. See last page—"Try Your Luck."

Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are filling graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardui establishes a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life. $1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Della M. Strayer, Tully, Kan. "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything, in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Theodor's Black-Draught, when needed, and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."

Clay Lacy and wife and two children while crossing the river at the Brooks' ford Saturday, the horse took fright and upset the buggy, throwing them out in the middle of the river. She herself was hurt slightly, but the rest was only wet and scared. Well, Clay didn't say.

A MISTAKE CORRECTED.

Chairman Carter, of the Senatorial Committee, Denies the Charges of Mr. Hampton.

Editor HAZEL GREEN HERALD:

I desire to make a statement to the democrats of the 34th senatorial district of Kentucky. I see a card in the papers, signed by James J. Hampton, in which he offers some reflections upon my rulings as chairman of the district in the late convention. He says I forcibly took the vote of Magoffin county from him and gave it to Mr. Stamper. No statement that could be made with reference to my actions in that convention, however false and insinuating, would do me greater injustice. There was a contest in Magoffin—two sets of delegates came to the convention—one headed by Hon. D. D. Sublett, was for Mr. Stamper, and the other headed by Hon. Dudley Gardner, was for Mr. Hampton. I called the convention to order, and after appointing two secretaries, one of whom was Henry Noble, of Jackson, a delegate for Mr. Hampton, and one of his leaders, proceeded with the election of a temporary chairman of the convention. Hon. G. W. Goad, of Morgan, and Hon. Dudley Gardner, of Magoffin, were before the convention to be voted for as chairman. I ordered the roll of the counties called, and the vote proceeded. Morgan county cast 9 votes for Goad without objection. Wolfe county gave her five votes to Goad; Breathitt county's 8 votes went to Gardner. Gardner got the one vote of Owsley. When Magoffin was reached her 5 votes were tried to be cast for each of the candidates for chairman. Each side presented credentials. I knew from the manner and temper of the contesting delegations that the contest was a hot one. I therefore declined to let that county vote in the temporary organization, and referred their credentials to the committee on credentials. When I made the announcement some one from Morgan tried to cast the vote of that county for Gardner. I knew he was no delegate. I knew there was no contest in my county, as I was chairman and presided over the county convention—only one held in my county—and in the convention there was no proposition made or anything whatever said about a contest. I took "Judicial notice" of this fact and refused to hear the straw-counting raised. The vote stood 14 for Goad and 9 for Gardner. I so announced the vote and declared Goad duly elected temporary chairman of the convention. One of the secretaries, Mr. Noble, without the shadow of authority announced that Goad had received 14 votes and Gardner 14 votes, making a tie. Their secretary did not claim that Gardner was elected, and had no right to do so. It was at this time that the Hampton men from Breathitt and Magoffin withdrew from the convention, and in one end of the convention hall held a side show, in which they claim to have voted all the counties in the district for Hampton, except Wolfe county; as shown by his card. On the second day of the convention, after the committee on credentials, composed of stalwart, honest, judicious and brainy democrats, reported seating Stamper's delegation in Magoffin, which report was adopted by the convention, and after Mr. Lykins, of Morgan, had his name withdrawn from the convention as a candidate, Hon. A. Howard Stamper received the 9 votes of Morgan, 5 votes of Wolfe and 5 votes of Magoffin, being all the votes in the district except 9, and amid almost deafening applause, which attest the high esteem in which our nominee is held by the "boys in the trenches" and that he is the choice of the democrats of the district, permanent chairman Goad, declared him the nominee of the democratic party for state senator. I want to say further that it is a fact, which every delegate at the convention knows to be true, that for 24 hours after the Hampton men withdrew from the convention, they remained in Hazel Green and worked and electioneered industriously, hoping the drop would in the end fall on Mr. Hampton and that he would be the nominee of the regular convention. I wonder if Mr. Hampton will deny that he told parties in Hazel Green, after the side show was over, that he would not accept the nomination under such circumstances. The parties can be found; their names are known and their veracity can not be called in question. These statements I have made are true, and I make them to place myself in the proper light before the people of the district and the country at large. Respectfully,
JOHN S. CARTER, Chairman
34th Sen. Dist. of Kentucky.

Election Tuesday, Nov. 5, 1901.

The attention of our readers is respectfully addressed to the ad. on last page of our paper "Try Your Luck." Therein is a chance to get the best local paper published in Eastern Kentucky and the neat sum of $5,000. The problem is solvable, and if you can guess the figures you are sure to get the money. The Press Association is a responsible organization, and, as will be seen by reading the ad., they have the money now in bank to pay the lucky estimator. By attending to this matter at once you have the chance of getting 1,000 extra, and surely $5,000 is some incentive in these hard times. Don't wait until this opportunity passes you by never to return, but grasp it now and do some figuring. Surely the ten years vote will enable you to form a pretty accurate guess, and who knows but you may hit the exact figures. You lose nothing at any rate, for the paper is worth the money.

HOWARD STAMPER, democratic nominee for state senator in this district, was a guest of the Day House Tuesday night, and talked with editor of this paper about his candidacy. He said he and his friends had submitted to Dave Redwine a proposition to have the state central committee act in the matter and settle it as to whether he or Judge Hampton is heir to the nomination. This, we have all the time maintained, was the proper course, and the sooner it is done the better for the party. Mr. Stamper is quite sanguine as to the result and talks very fairly in regard to the matter, and we hope it will soon be settled that democratic success may be assured. As the case now stands Judge Hampton seems to be responsible, and the sooner he realizes the great democratic doctrine that "The party is greater than the man," the sooner will he escape the stigma of "kicking against the pricks." Let us have peace in the party and victory will be emblazoned upon our banner this fall and the common enemy—republicanism—vanquished! Selah!

People who are sympathizing with the first Mrs. Herron seem to forget that she got rid of Herron. There are compensations in everything.

ARE YOU good at guessing? If so, send us $1 for a year's subscription to THE HERALD and guess the total vote of Ohio, Massachusetts and Iowa at the November election. The subscriber who can guess the nearest will get $5,000, and if he makes his guess before July 10, he will get $1,000 extra. We should like to see some of our subscribers get this money, and as all who make a guess have 1,000 chances of getting their money back it looks like there is but little risk to incur. "Try Your Luck."

SOME scientist is claiming that monkeys can be taught to pick cotton. Nay! Nay! Pauline! This has been tried before. But the planter who put one negro to watch ten monkeys, soon found that he needed ten negroes to watch one of the pesky little beasts.

A grand time is anticipated, and the event promises to be one that will long be remembered by all who have the pleasure to participate.

Our friend Fred J. Heintz, the manufacturing jeweler of Lexington, sent Mr. and Mrs. Elza James as a bridal present a handsome pin case in shape of a cartridge, upon which is the American flag. The sum of $1.00 will bring some lucky individual THE HERALD for 12 months and $5,000 in cash. A little figuring is all that is necessary. See last page—"Try Your Luck."
